Choosing a career? - How on earth?!

Work/Life Balance!?

- Dear God!

Life Coaching techniques?
- WTH?!

How to encourage ourselves? - Omg...

Personal Development
vs. Career Development?
- For the love of God!

Time Management!
- Hands on face!

Self Determination! -

- Huh?!

How to have a happier life? - Jesus...

How to Choose a Career?

- It is a really hard question to begin with!
- Some say it is related to our way of living. It's not always about making money.
- Surely, one cannot make a recipe for everyone.
- Maybe the first step you can do is determine these three<sup>1</sup>:

What are your Values?

What are your Talents?

What do you enjoy?

<sup>1</sup> <http://tarjomaan.com/neveshtar/8224/>

How to Find a Suitable Job?

- There are many online boards and search engines:
  - LinkedIn
  - Glassdoor
  - Indeed
  - Monster
  - Ed2010 or MediaBistro for editorial jobs
  - eFinancialCareers for finance-related jobs
  - engineering.com for engineering jobs
  - Setting up Google Alerts is useful, too.
- The most successful activity to find a job:
  - Build up your network<sup>1</sup>

Know Your Preferences

- There are thousands and thousands of jobs!
  - Searching through all of them is exhausting.
- You have to know “what you want.”
  - It’s called Self Reflection.
- A sample list:
  - Job location
  - Company mission
  - Remote or On-site
  - Growth Opportunity
  - Your role
  - Time flexibility
  - Full-time or Part-time
  - ...
- Separate your job needs and your job desires
  - Draw a distinction between must-have vs nice-to-have

If you don't find any preferences, ask yourself
if you'd be happy in any position.

How to get prepared for work?

- The opening ceremony is “Interview!”.
  - Since when do you have to get prepared for the interview?

Acing an interview starts well before the interview itself — years before, in fact.

Without a great
resume, there is no
interview.

Without great experience, there
is no great resume.

Without great
experience, there
is no interview.

- If you lack encouragement or goal:
  - Think about the interview as a deadline.

“The difference between a dream and a goal is a deadline.” – Steve Smith

How to get prepared for work?

- How to get experienced while education?
  - Take classes that have projects. (And do them!)
  - Get an Internship. (They pave the way of getting a job.)
  - Start building something on your own. (or Contribute in OSSs)
  - Participate in Hackathons (Programming contests.)
  - Accomplish online courses.
  - Use your nights and weekends.

3-12 months before Interview(s):

Build Projects
outside of School

Learn Multiple Programming
Languages

Implement data structures and algorithms from scratch

Build your website/portfolio &
Update your resume

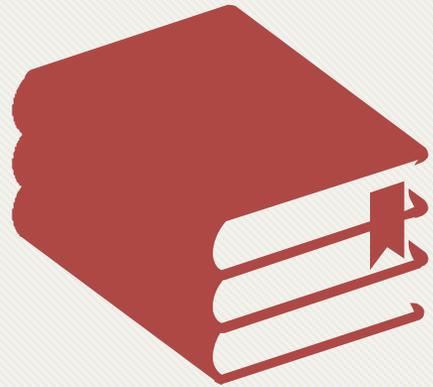

Expand your Networks
with other students, professors, ...

A Successful Job Application

- A targeted Resume/CV
- A formal Cover Letter
- An active Social Profile
- An effective Interview

1

CV/Resume, Cover Letter, LOI, SOP, ...

2

Soft Skills & Hard Skills

3

Various kinds of Interviews

CV/Resume, Cover Letter, LOI, SOP, ...

- Resume contains an outline of skills, capacities, and achievements
- CV is A Latin word which stands for Curriculum Vitae means Course of Life and is more extended than resume
- Cover Letter sent with a resume and conveys additional information about the applicant.
  - It targets a specific position.
- Letter of Interest is like Cover Letter but it doesn't target a specific position.
- Statement Of Purpose (Letter of Intent) is basically like Cover letter but targets for a University.
  - It's a bridge between your past and the future you are eager to build with the degree
  - It's about who you are, what has influenced your academic and career path so far, your professional interests.
- Personal Statement lets you share your experiences in your personal life, your education, ...
  - About who you are and what is your history
- Letter of Motivation like SOP usually forward-looking and connects your past career experiences to future.
  - is addressed to the admission members and show the reasons describing why you want to be accepted to the chosen program.
- Study Plan is like SOP and sometimes includes planned schedule.

Don't Worry! There are many templates out there!

Soft vs. Hard Skills

- Soft Skills:
  - Frank behavior
  - Resource Management
  - Multitasking
  - Responsibility of office equipment
  - Goal Setting and meeting goals
  - Communication
  - Creativity
  - Self-Confidence
  - Stress management
  - Documentation
  - Teamwork
  - Self Control
  - Work Ethic

Hard skills require a higher level of IQ or the Intelligent Quotient of a person

Soft Skills can be called the EQ or the Emotional Quotient of a person

- Hard Skills:
  - Logical Thinking
  - Programming Languages
  - Programming Frameworks
  - Technical abilities
  - Language Proficiency
  - Specific Software
  - Analysis tools
  - Algorithm design
  - Debugging abilities
  - Testing abilities
  - Requirement gathering
  - Research

Various Kinds of Interviews

Based on the count of people involved	Based on the planning involved	Based on judging the abilities	Based on the facilities or settings	Based on the task
Personal interview	A structured interview	Behavioral-based interview	Telephonic interview	Apprenticeship interview
Group interview	Unstructured interview	Problem-solving interview	Online interview	Evaluation interview

What are the purposes of a Resume?

- Resume is the most important part of a job application.
- It's main purpose is to get you an interview, not a job!
- It's not a 1h task! You have to keep refining it throughout your career.
- Don't worry about Resumes' contents in different countries.
  - In USA, it isn't normal to have picture or marital status, but in Germany it is.
  - In USA, Resumes are normally 1-page, or 2-page if you are experienced.
- The important thing is to communicate your experience in a concise manner.
- In average, hiring managers only spend 6 to 10 seconds on a Resume<sup>1</sup>.
- There are many templates and Resume generators on the web.

Remember that: Less is More!

PERSONAL SKILLS

CREATIVITY	SEO
TEAM WORK	INNOVATE

- If any section is not strong, emphasize others.
- Volunteer work shows:
  - You can work in a team.
  - Meet the deadlines.
  - Multi task
  - But remove them if you have professional experience (not in CV)
- In Skill section, write as technical as possible.
  - Not Microsoft apps
- Don't write down soft skills
  - Demonstrate them in other parts

Resume Sections cont.

- Use action verbs. Why?
  - Before your resume reaches a set of human eyes, it passes through an applicant tracking system (ATS).
  - These systems filter resumes based on keywords, which often include action words.
  - They highlight your skills and experience
  - They make your resume easier to read.

- In projects, always show three things:

What you did?

How you did it?

What are the results?

- Use Numbers (report quantitatively)

- Best way to provide Evidence about your skills
- Compare these:

Increased the web application speed.

Reduced object rendering time by 75% by implementing distributed caching, leading to a 10% reduction of the whole web application latency.

Changed a lightbulb

Single-handedly managed the successful upgrade and deployment of new environmental illumination system with zero cost overruns and zero safety accidents!

Resume Quality Control

- Make sure it looks nice:
  - No miss-alignment
  - No weird colors or formatting
  - Make sure the readers' focus is on the important words
- Make sure links are clickable
- No spelling or grammatical errors
  - Most companies throw out your resume just because of a typo. Why?!
  - It means you don't pay attention to the details. And that is a red line!
- Almost everything on the 2nd page is ignored.
  - Remember the 6s span.
  - Keep the most important things on the 1st page.
- Share the resume only as a PDF with a proper name.
  - Name your resume by your first and last name.
  - No strange file types. That includes ~~doc~~, ~~docx~~, ~~tex~~, ~~txt~~, ~~ppt~~, or even ~~exe~~!

Targeted Resume

- What is a targeted resume?
  - Why editing a resume for a specific job?
  - To maximize the overlap between job requirements and the job candidate skills.
- One Master Resume and a couple of targeted ones.
- Edit targeted resumes
  - The first thing on the resume has to be the most relevant activity that the job candidate has.

Master Resume
All of your activities

Resume #1
Relevant to Job #1

Resume #2
Relevant to Job #2

Cover Letter

- A targeted formal letter, it is ineffective to copy/paste
  - 1-page letter, addressed to the HR manager of the company
  - Usually 4 paragraphs (Intro, 2 body paragraphs, and a conclusion)
  - It has to be concise, captivating, and contains memorable information.
  - You have to show you have a big picture in mind.
  - You have connect previous relevant experiences with their position
- Starts with why you are excited and passionate about this job.
- Next, expand how you find this job as your ideal one
  - Show a lot of passion. Sometimes it counts more than your current skills.
- After that, expand your related experiences and projects
  - 1 detailed project is better than multiple, vague, and general one.
- In the conclusion paragraph, show your gratitude and mention why you are a good a candidate and how you fit into the company.

Dear Ms. Johnson,

With a formal background in marketing paired with my proven success in retail sales, I am looking to transition into public relations. I believe my skills and background make me an excellent fit for the position of Public Relations Specialist at your PR Firm in the department of consumer goods.

Having used your products, I am already knowledgeable about your brand and your offerings. I have followed with excitement as you launched new fragrances for various celebrities and have introduced an edgy personality to your branding and product lines. I would bring both passion and knowledge to promoting your brands to the press and the public.

Already trained in creating buzz, I was responsible for the social media content at my previous company. When my team decided to participate in the polar plunge two years ago, we used social media to create interest in donating to our cause, and we raised more than $10,000 for the event.

I am confident the skills I honed in previous positions have prepared me for this opportunity with your firm. My expertise in your products and my experience in customer service and retail sales make me a great candidate for this opening. I would love to meet you and share more about my previous experience. If you have any questions, please give me a call at 416-821-9879 or email me at john.doe@gmail.com.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
John Doe

1 Why online profiles are important?

2 Optimize LinkedIn

3 A few notes on GitHub

Why Online Profiles?

- The more activity/information about you online, the more chance for you to find new opportunities.
  - Or even have the opportunities find you.
  - You don't know where the opportunities come from, but you have to make sure that you won't miss out an opening.
- Networking give you access to more job boards.
  - Even joining job boards that are not open to public.
- Personal branding can be done effectively using online tools.
- Why LinkedIn?
  - Almost 630m LinkedIn users.
  - At least 100m jobs are posted every month<sup>1</sup>

Optimize LinkedIn

- Make your own Elevator Pitch.
  - It's like a sales pitch or sales talk
  - What do you want employers to know about you?
  - What are you most proud of?
  - What is your dream job? What is your passion in your career?
- Include as many keywords as possible in your pitch.
  - It helps bots to find you faster.
- Write as the first person.
- Include your abilities and most important experiences

My Elevator Pitch

I'm a Java developer who loves working with big data and parallel-processing platforms and programming models (such as Apache Spark). Recently I am working on optimizing the performance of programs, especially with GPUs and other parallel architectures, and want to give it a shot to Machine Learning, too. I also have an insatiable enthusiasm to work as a teacher, and right now I am struggling to find a way to combine my deep passion for education with my experience in computer science.

Optimize LinkedIn cont.

- Headline:
  - Appropriate name and username
  - Your current job title
  - Or your last degree
- Profile Picture:
  - A professional picture from your head and shoulders with high resolutions.
  - No inappropriate environments, no selfie, and not including other people
  - Don't worry about your online trace! They have already had everything<sup>1</sup>
- Summary
  - It's your elevator pitch
- Work experience and Accomplishments
  - Add course, projects, and honors or awards
  - Consistent with your resume
- Boost your visibility by:
  - Post, like, comment, endorse, recommend, ...
  - Follow your colleagues, teachers, friends, families, ...

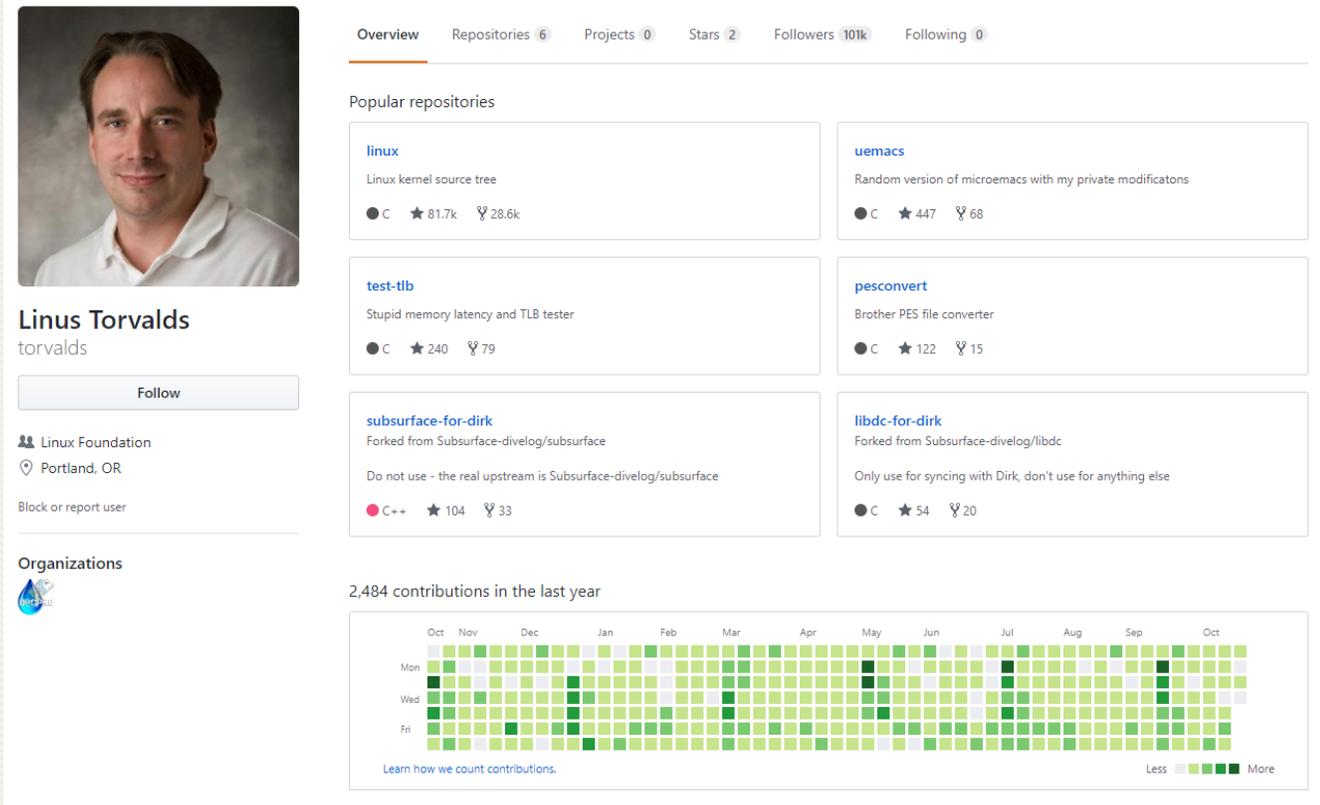

<sup>1</sup> <http://tarjomaan.com/neveshtar/9396/>

Optimize GitHub

- Learn Git!
- A good Profile picture.
- Your name and username.
- Contribution chart
  - First thing HR will take a look at
- Starred Repos & Contributed Repos
- Commit messages
- Documentation
  - Repository READMEs
  - It's really important.
  - You'll thank yourself more than anyone.
  - Watch the course on Writing READMEs<sup>1</sup>

The screenshot shows the GitHub profile of Linus Torvalds. On the left is a profile picture of Linus. Below it, his name 'Linus Torvalds' and username 'torvalds' are displayed, along with a 'Follow' button. His affiliation with the Linux Foundation and location in Portland, OR are listed. Below that, an 'Organizations' section shows the Linux Foundation logo.

The main content area is titled 'Overview' and shows statistics: 6 Repositories, 0 Projects, 2 Stars, 101k Followers, and 0 Following. Under 'Popular repositories', four repos are listed: 'linux' (Linux kernel source tree, 81.7k stars, 28.6k forks), 'uemacs' (Random version of microemacs with my private modifications, 447 stars, 68 forks), 'test-tlb' (Stupid memory latency and TLB tester, 240 stars, 79 forks), and 'pesconvert' (Brother PES file converter, 122 stars, 15 forks). Below these are two more repos: 'subsurface-for-dirk' (Forked from Subsurface-divelog/subsurface, 104 stars, 33 forks) and 'libdc-for-dirk' (Forked from Subsurface-divelog/libdc, 54 stars, 20 forks).

At the bottom, a '2,484 contributions in the last year' section features a contribution chart. The chart is a grid with columns for months (Oct, Nov, Dec, Jan, Feb, Mar, Apr, May, Jun, Jul, Aug, Sep, Oct) and rows for days of the week (Mon, Wed, Fri). The grid is filled with green squares of varying shades, representing the number of contributions made on each day. A legend at the bottom right indicates 'Less' (lighter green) and 'More' (darker green) contributions.

Before Interview

During Interview

After Interview

Before Interview

- Memorize your resume!
  - You have to be able to talk about your resume sections in details.
- Practice Interview (better with real HR managers)
  - It is also a good way to networking. (thumbs up!)
- Prepare your questions from the interviewer.
  - It shows that you are interested into the position.
  - It shows that you have put a little preparation in it.
  - It gives you a good position in their mind.
- Research about these areas:
  1. About yourself!
    - Write down your relevant qualifications
    - How you can meet their expectations.
    - How you can add value to the company

Before Interview cont.

- Research about these areas:
  2. About the employer
    - You can use Glassdoor and Vault to get reviews from employees
    - Their CEO, HR, HM, ...
    - History and culture of the company
- Work on your self-confidence and stress.
  - You are maybe not an actor, so you need to manage your feelings when you are speaking in front of others. Practice is the key.
- Being on-time is late!
  - Be there around 15 minutes earlier.
- Dress nicely and professionally.
  - Wear a nice perfume, moderately!
  - Pay attention to their culture. You have to fit in it!

During Interview

- The first impression almost decides the interview outcome
- Bring a pen & Notebook
  - It shows you are detailed oriented.
  - Also resume/CV & cover letter
- Be confident, not arrogant.
- Makes eye contact, do not stare like a creep!
  - It shows confidence
- Give a firm handshake, not more than 2 seconds!
  - Do not hug or kiss the interviewer! (hands on face!)
- Smile! And be energetic, not too much enthusiastic.
- Never interrupts, always speak when you are asked for.
  - Be an active listener.
- Never put your hands in your pocket.
- Don't make any annoying noises, and don't chew gums

During Interview cont.

- Don't play with your hair
  - It looks unconfident, anxious, or uncomfortable
- Turn off your phone.
- Don't bring anything strange to the interview.
- Try not to tell any jokes.
- Prepare for behavioral questions:
  - Why do we have to hire you?
  - What are your weaknesses?
    - Don't say something like: "My greatest weakness is that I work too hard!"
  - Why do you want to work for this company?
  - Why are you leaving your current company?
  - Other behavioral questions<sup>1</sup>.
- Ask the interviewer your questions.
- Substantiate your strengths with specific examples. (short stories)

Power of
"Yet"

Growth Mindset Vs. Fixed Mindset<sup>2</sup>

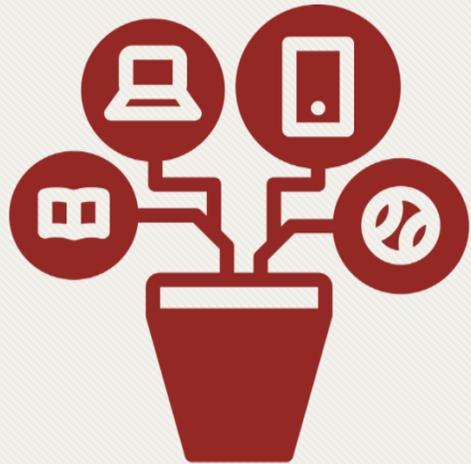

- If you don't know any special skill or software, and you are asked about it, don't answer with "No, I don't know".
- Try to go with: "Not yet. I will work on it."
- It shows you have a growth mindset.

After Interview

- Give a firm handshake and show your gratitude.
- Send an Email as well.
- Check the status with your employment
  - Not fast, not late
  - “I haven’t heard about them since 4 years ago! Do you think I should send an email?!”
